

Application Requirements for the Occupational Health and Safety Master's Program:

Graduates of 4-year undergraduate programs of Universities can apply for this program.

But Engineering or graduates of faculties providing architectural education and the Faculty of Arts and Sciences graduates from Physics, Chemistry, Biology Departments and have the title of Physicist, Chemist, Biologist Architecture, and whose to graduate from Technical Education Faculties and received the title of Technical Teacher, also Profession Graduates of the Vocational Health and Safety Program of Vocational Schools students if they graduate from a four-year university different from their licence degree, after obtaining master degree with or without thesis can participate to exam of The Ministry of Labor and Family "Workplace Medicine and Occupational Safety B Class Specialist" . Equivalence of undergraduate diplomas obtained from abroad, by Higher Education Council must be approved

Requirements for Candidates Who Want to Apply

- At least in the numerical score type from the Academic Staff and Graduate Education Entrance Exam (ALES) It must have a minimum of fifty-five(55) points out of a hundred points.

Master's Program with Thesis:

- Certificate of licence,(original)
- License Transcript, (registered)
- Identity card or registered copy,
- Status of military service from male candidates (can be obtained from e-government),
- Criminal record (available from e-government),
- Residence registration (can be obtained from the e-government),
- 4 biometric photos,
- ALES certificate,
- Foreign language certificate (in programs where foreign language documents are required)