Training and education model

“to the 3rd generation university”

presentation plan

- ✓ The model? Why do we need a model?
- ✓ What does it mean the Third Generation University?
- ✓ The Structure of a department and its importance
- ✓ The unique legal document between the University and students, Syllabus
- ✓ Planning process
- ✓ Last words

The model?

- ✓ IGU, International Relations Department has a model which has the combination of different types of education and training activities that our program engaged in. Our model is a kind of structure which leads the all training and education parts and actors involve in.
- ✓ The model shows us that "How do we teach?" "To whom do we teach?" "What do we expect each of our student?" "How do we evaluate our students?" and "How do we evaluate our program?"

The purpose

No doubt that for all our students both Turkish and Erasmus or Exchange students our sole purpose is to provide them with skills and knowledge to become as a World intellectual individual.

So, it is obvious and precise that when they completed their undergraduate program successfully they have;

1. at least two foreign languages near to their native,
2. chance and ability to make their carrier following master and doctoral program either in country or abroad,
3. high opportunities work on several private enterprises in country and when they applied special procedures they may also work abroad,
4. chance when they passed a serial difficult examinations to work for Ministry of Foreign Affairs and other public enterprise.

Why do we need a model?

- ✓ All critical points in training and education activities should be based on the specific path mostly in undergraduate level.
- ✓ Departmental goals to be reached which ought to be defined and should be evaluated end of the program. These ideas need a base which should be known, applied, followed and evaluated by every actor in the department.
- ✓ If a department, even university, has not a model to lead all areas of management of the department can not know its degree of successful. Unreliable and undependable feedback make a department fail.

What does it mean the third generation university?

In last five hundred years the World expanded three times. When we accept the center of the World is Europe as geographically and even technologically to reach the other areas out of Europe that means it is an expansion. The first expansion happened in 1490's second in 1870's and the last in 1990's three waves of expansion of the World

	1st EXPANSION 1490's	2nd EXPANSION 1870's	3rd EXPANSION 1990's
GENERATOR POWER (TRIGGER)	Mercantalism	Industrial Revolution Steam-Boat & Rail	Information Age
METHOD	First conquerers & Explorers, then military invade	First missionaries, after explorers, then trade firms, last military invade	Cultural & ideological effect (so everywhere of the country being effected as economic, politic and socially)
CONVINCING (SHOWING THE RIGHTNESS)	Missioners, "We bring the God's religion to you, pagans,"	White men's burden, Mission to make them civilized, White's are superior	1.The highest level of civilization 2. Invisible hand of market 3.Globalization provide benefits for everyone
RESULT	COLONIALISM	IMPERIALISM	GLOBALIZM

What does it mean the third generation university?

When we combined or related this information concern on expansion with the development of state type we see three types of states respectively; absolute state, nation/national state, democratic state.

three waves created three forms of state

	1st EXPANSION 1490's	2nd EXPANSION 1870's	3rd EXPANSION 1990's

What does it mean the third generation university?

Interestingly universities also transformed from one type/form to another as the state types transformed. Therefore, we easily see that there is an enormous relation between universities and the state type/form in times.

Three forms of state creates three types of university

today's World expectations from the Third Generation Universities

The principal notion of third generation university is to contribute to global peace. This is the main result that it has been constructed together with the universities and historical transformation of the World.

Universities in the Middle Ages were in pursuit for good, pretty, truth, divine and servitude.

Second generation universities called Humbolt Universities were national they also were in pursuit for nature.

today's World expectations from the Third Generation Universities

Gedik University believes that success in higher education depends to the structure and functioning of the departments.

Therefore education and training is carried out by applying a model to transfer this concept to the real life,

This model is applied every year considering Gedik University Strategic Planning Process.

The Board of Trustees and the Senate make up their mind according to the outcomes of the functionality and effectiveness of the departments. The Model also covers vocational school of higher education and, master and Phd programs.

today's World expectations from the Third Generation Universities

However, autonomy of the 3rd generation universities is also increasing state control because of financial support of it.

these are the other expectations from 3rd generation universities.

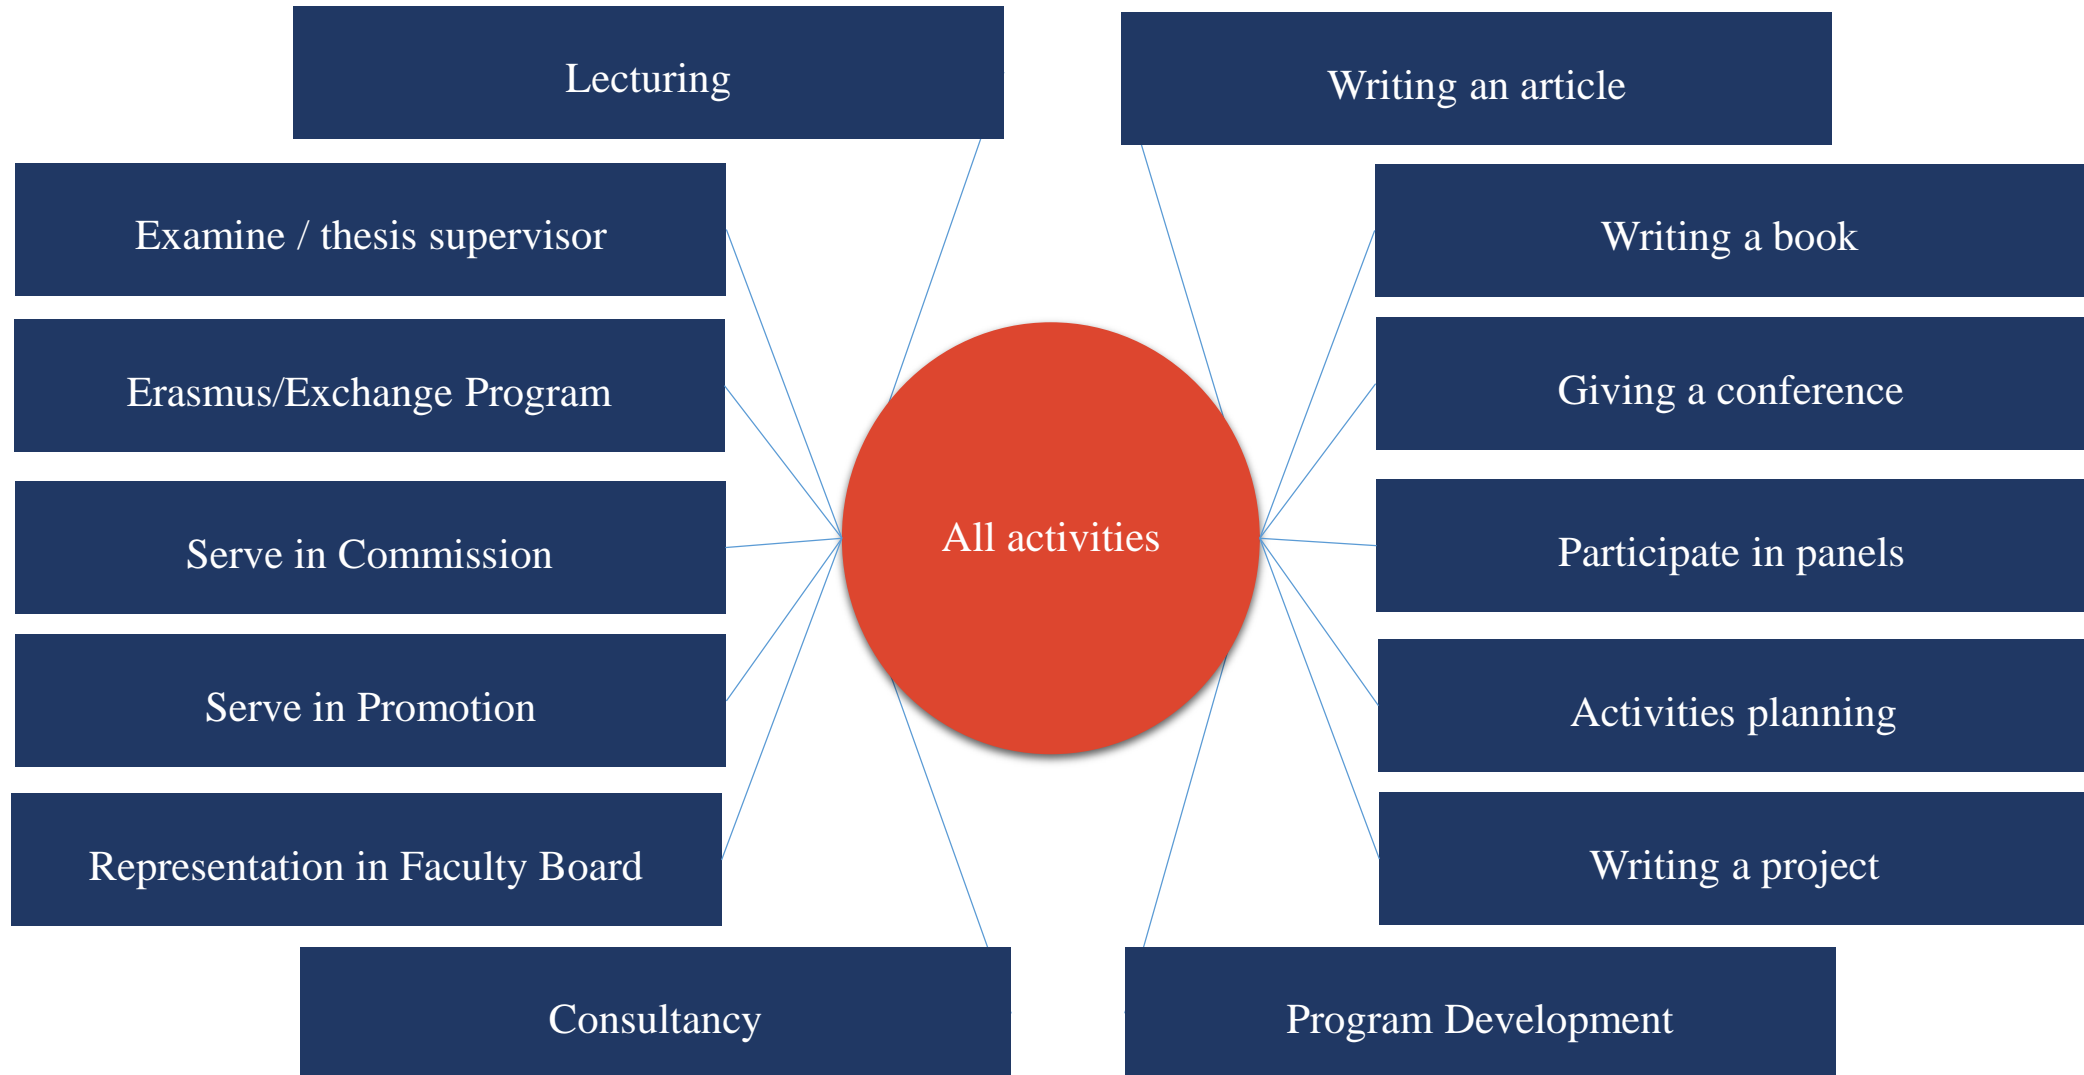

Standardization at the global level, global accreditation, joint and / or parallel laboratories, to be charged based on the performance of academics, to produce information and teaching for protection of nature, qualified human resources training, technology, manufacturing, general manufacturing services for society;

we do all these in our department,
