

BPP University International Summer Schools 2017

We are the University for the professions

Your career starts here

BPP University is the only university in the UK dedicated to the professions. Study with us and benefit from:

- Strong connections with leading, global businesses.
- Programmes that are designed with employers and respected professionals.
- Tutors who all have practical professional experience and bring real-world knowledge into the classroom

Our International Summer Schools are an exclusive opportunity to broaden your academic knowledge and enhance your practical skillset in Law, Business, Dentistry and English.

Study in the heart of London and Birmingham in Summer 2017.

BPP University Business School programmes have been successfully delivered to leading companies such as Lloyds Banking Group and TUI.

Over 11,000 students currently study with BPP University.

BPP University School of Foundation and English Language Studies provision is accredited by the British Council.

We exclusively train over 60 leading UK and global law firms' trainees.

BPP University School of Health has over 40 years' experience in delivering professional qualifications.

BPP University celebrates more than 16,000 alumni.

BPP University Law School was ranked in the top five universities for quality of teaching in Legal Week's 2014 annual Law Student Report.

We educate students from over half the total countries across the globe.

International Summer Schools 2017

BPP University International Summer Schools offer an exclusive opportunity to broaden your academic knowledge and enhance your practical skillset in Law, Business, Dentistry and English.

Please visit summerschool.bppuniversity.ac.uk for further information and how to apply. Alternatively, contact admissions@bpp.com (EU/UK students) or internationaladmissions@bpp.com (international students) or call us on 0044 20 7430 7065 for further information.

Choose from the following Summer School programmes:

You can enrol for only one programme at a time. You may enrol for any consecutive programmes:

BPP University Law School

03 July – 14 July 2017: Introduction to International Business Law
17 July – 28 July 2017: Introduction to Civil and Criminal Law

BPP University Business School

03 July – 14 July 2017: Introduction to International Business
17 July – 28 July 2017: Introduction to Entrepreneurship

BPP University Dental Institute

03 July – 28 July 2017: Dental Summer School

BPP University School of Foundation and English Language Studies

17 – 28 July 2017 & 31 July – 11 August 2017:

- English for Legal Professional
- English for Business and Accounting Professionals
- English for Healthcare Professionals
- English for Hospitality Professionals
- English for Educators

Applications for Summer School programmes will close on 31 May 2017. Please note, Summer School programmes are not credit-bearing. You will receive a certificate of attendance upon successful completion. Programmes are subject to minimum number of students.

BPP University Law Summer School

With over 20 years' experience in delivering professional legal qualifications, BPP University Law School is now one of the largest law schools in the United Kingdom. We pride ourselves on building and shaping legal careers by developing our students into focused and highly employable solicitors or barristers. We are trusted by over 60 of the UK's leading law firms, who send all of their trainee solicitors to study with us. We combine the academic excellence of a university with a practical focus on developing skills required to succeed as a lawyer by offering degrees which focus on key skills set combined with a strong commercial flavour.

Our Law Summer School comprises of two current and highly relevant 2-week modules: Introduction to International Business Law and Introduction to Civil and Criminal Law run at our centrally located Law School in Waterloo, London. Both modules run consecutively and you may enrol for one or both of the modules:

03 - 14 July 2017:

Introduction to International Business Law

The two week programme is aimed to introduce to you the key concepts of the English legal system within the context of an international business transaction. The module will cover key elements of contract law and equity & trusts as a foundation for basic company law principles of English law. You will be able to develop your knowledge of contract law and learn how to utilise analytical tools to evaluate legal decisions. You will be able to put into practice skills required for your mediation, negotiation and client interviewing skills and advance your commercial awareness and business understanding.

Tuition Fees £ 1,200

17 - 28 July 2017:

Introduction to Civil and Criminal Law

The two week programme has the purpose to introduce you to key concepts of the English legal system within the context of civil and criminal law of English Law. You will learn how substantive tort law and criminal law apply in practice and how the court structure operates in England and Wales. We will equip you with crucial analytical skills you need to in order to evaluate legal decisions in civil and criminal prosecutions. You will learn how to prepare and construct coherent legal arguments and put your newly acquired skills into practice during our exciting mock trial performed by members of the English Bar.

Tuition Fees £ 1,200

Students have to be at undergraduate level or above studying Law with a level of English equivalent to an IELTS of 6.0.

My BPP experience in three words: enjoyable, exciting and knowledgeable. BPP helped me in creating valuable networks. I would recommend BPP University to other students. You should come and join BPP to feel the change and motivation to achieve your goals.

.....

Aditya Raghu Rayee,

India, Law Summer School Student 2016

My BPP experience has been truly mind-stimulating. BPP has helped to find what path I want to take towards my future careers goals and provided many opportunities to network.

.....

Alia El-Abiary

Dubai, Law Summer School student 2016

BPP University Business Summer School

BPP Business School is located in the heart of the city within easy access of some of the world's most famous landmarks such as the Tower of London and the Gherkin. BPP Business School was formed in 2005 and our aim is to provide you with the practical skills and industry insight that you need to build your career and stay competitive.

The Business Summer School programme aims to equip international students, with an understanding of business practices and principles whilst allowing students an opportunity to sample student life at University and to develop their English language skills. Scheduled over two weeks the Summer School consists of a mixture of formal teaching, business, cultural visits and a series of lectures from academics and specialists which all aim to give insights into business.

03 - 14 July 2017:

Introduction to International Business

The two week programme will provide you with an insight in to what it takes to manage and lead a business in the 21st Century. Working in groups you will work on a Business Simulation Project, based on 'real world context' to help re-inforce student learning. The Business Simulation project integrates the functional areas of marketing, operations, finance and general management. Within your groups you will plan your strategies and practice making business decisions. You will attend lectures from sector experts and at the end of the project you will prepare and deliver a group presentation to a panel of experts.

Tuition Fees £ 1,200

17 - 28 July 2017:

Introduction to Entrepreneurship

The two week programme will challenge you to recognise and understand the importance of entrepreneurship in a modern business context. Working in groups, you will be guided through the exciting but challenging task of taking an idea to market, growing the business venture and securing a successful exit. You will attend lectures from sector experts and working with other students you will develop a business idea. No prior knowledge of the subject is required - all we ask is that you are interested in developing your own business ideas.

Tuition Fees £ 1,200

Students have to be at undergraduate level or above in any discipline with a level of English equivalent to an IELTS of 5.5.

My BPP experience in three words: knowledge, professionalism and success. I want to run my own business one day and BPP has helped me to build the key skills set I need to be successful.

.....

Ksenia Voitovich

Russia

My BPP experience has been fun, interesting and I think it's a unique programme. BPP University's programmes are internationally recognised, it will definitely enhance my employability back home in Brazil.

.....

Matheus Correa Costa

Brazil, Summer School student 2016

BPP University Dental Summer School

BPP University Dental Institute brings together the practical skills and knowledge that you need to maximise your prospects as a dental professional. Our unique teaching approach provides you with practice-focused experience that has an emphasis on patient-centred care. What's more, our teaching is delivered by practitioner-tutors, as part of an engaging and interactive learning experience in our Birmingham centre:

03 July - 28 July 2017: Dental Summer School

BPP University Dental Summer School is an exclusive opportunity to take that next step in your career. You will be able to sample our seminars, workshops and observe our specialist clinical sessions to acquire valuable key skills and knowledge of dentistry practice in the United Kingdom. Our Dental Summer School is a four week programme that will provide you with experience of a wide range of specialisms to help inform your chosen career path and help make your CV stand out. The programme will cover topics such as:

- Medical ethics
- Professionalism and aspects of patient management in the dental practice
- Consent, clinical practice regulations and the role of the General Dental Council
- Preventative oral medicine
- Advances in Dentistry in the 21st century

You will also:

- Gain insight into different career options within dentistry
- Observe 1:1 clinical sessions in
 - Periodontology
 - Orthodontics
 - Oral Surgery
 - Implant Dentistry
- Have the opportunity to test your skills in BPP University's role play simulation scenarios
- Enhance your employability skills with BPP University's Dental Institute career team and international guest speakers
- Network with like-minded students from around the world
- Along with your studies, you will be able to experience the diversity of British life and see the incredible city of Birmingham first hand

Tuition Fees £ 5,000

Students must be a current undergraduate dental student in years 3 to 5, or a current or recently graduated postgraduate student with a level of English equivalent to an IELTS of 5.0.

I love the teaching style at BPP as it has made the course content a lot easier to understand and the teachers are very helpful. The fact that every lecturer is highly experienced means that I'm a lot more comfortable learning from them.

.....

Sarah Umunna

I recommend BPP University to other students because of its great location and the opportunity to network internationally. My studies have given me greater confidence in choosing the right career path for me.

.....

Jessel Savani

MClintDent Implantology

BPP University English Summer School

Our Summer School Professional English courses build upon your knowledge, understanding and confidence of the English language in order to prepare you to meet the challenges of your career in law, healthcare, business, accounting, teaching or hospitality. We are accredited by the British Council for the teaching of English and our tutors have a wealth of real-life and academic teaching experience. Our summer school courses are held in small-group workshops. This helps you to build your knowledge, understanding and confidence with the support of your tutors and fellow students.

17 - 28 July 2017 & 31 July - 11 August 2017

Our International English Summer School is a two week programme of five English courses designed to teach you the professional communication skills you need in your international career in Law, Business, Health, Hospitality and Education taught at our Shepherd's Bush campus in London. You will have the opportunity to improve your communication skills in English as well as advance your language and vocabulary with a focus on your specific profession.

English for Legal Professionals: This two week course of interactive workshops is designed to improve the specific communication skills required by legal professionals. The focus lies on the development of legal English, listening and speaking skills as well as accuracy and fluency in reading and writing. In addition, you will participate in lectures on legal topics which will complement your learning experience.

English for Business and Accounting Professionals: This two week course with a mix of workshops and lectures is designed to improve the communication skills of business and accounting professionals. Whilst developing your listening and speaking skills, you will receive training on specific skills required for meetings, client presentations and negotiations. You will focus on improving your accuracy and fluency in reading and writing skills and participate in lectures delivered by business professionals to complement your learning experience.

English for Healthcare Professionals: This two week course is designed to improve the communication skills required by healthcare professionals. You will participate in workshops to improve the skills you need when speaking to clients, managing difficult conversations and learn specific healthcare language. In addition, you will participate in lectures delivered by healthcare professionals.

English for Hospitality Professionals: This two week course is designed to improve the communication skills of professionals within the hospitality industry. You will have the opportunity to learn more about vital speaking skills when managing and speaking to customers. You will participate in workshops to maximise your listening and speaking skills as well as industry-specific vocabulary. You will also have the opportunity to participate in lectures delivered by hospitality professionals.

English for Educators: This two week course aims to improve the communication skills of professionals who teach specialised subject in English. You will receive training on giving lectures and seminars in English, on designing and writing assessments in English, and learning the language vital for meetings - with a focus on both accuracy and fluency in listening and speaking.

Tuition Fees £995 for a two week programme

Students have to be either professionals in the respective field or a current undergraduate student with an intermediate level of English.

Social Programme

Complement your studies with an exciting social programme designed to fit in perfectly with your summer school studies at BPP University. Choose from a wide range of activities for which you can sign up once you are enrolled with us.

Activities will include cultural activities such as sightseeing tours, Afternoon tea with Lord Holmes and trips to surrounding cities as well as programme-relevant activities such as visits to international corporate and law firms, a variety of guest speaker sessions as well as career-skill talks.

Join our vibrant student community, make new friends and network with like-minded individuals with BPP University International Summer Schools.

Please note you will only be able to purchase social programme tickets once you have paid your tuition fees. Terms & Conditions apply.

BPP
UNIVERSITY

How to apply

Please visit summerschool.bppuniversity.ac.uk
Contact admissions@bpp.com (UK/EU students) or internationaladmissions@bpp.com (International students)

To apply or for more information

☎ +44 (0) 20 7430 7065

✉ internationaladmissions@bpp.com

🌐 summerschool.bppuniversity.ac.uk

Visit www.gov.uk/study-visit-visa/overview for more information on short-term study visas.

©BPP University Limited 2016