Pécs is one of the most beautiful Central European cities, with a rich culture dating back to the Roman Empire. You can actually visit building foundations and burial ground as old as the 4th century in our historic yet modern city. Beautiful architecture and artwork can be found down every street. There are many festivals that occur regularly throughout the year. In fact, our city was designated to be a European Capital of Culture in 2010. It is a vibrant yet peaceful, safe and student friendly UniverCity.

The University of Pécs, founded in 1367, is also the oldest and one of the largest research universities in Hungary. With ten schools and 20,000 students, the University plays a significant role in Hungarian higher education. It is a truly international university in the heart of Central and Eastern Europe with our first English-taught degree program launched over 30 years ago. Today, the University of Pécs offers more than 40 degree programs taught in English with more than 3,000 international students coming from 95 different countries.

Our university offers a

- very reasonable program fee
- gorgeous, vibrant location
- a safe environment
- and a unique Central European study abroad experience

Our courses are very high quality and professionally relevant which will enhance your resume along with providing the other benefits gained by participating in a summer program.
